MOTION IN LIMINE TO PRECLUDE ANY REFERENCE OF THE NAMES OF ALLEGED DRUG DEALERS

The Defendant requests that this Court bar any evidence or testimony that purports to identify any person as a drug dealer. As grounds, the Defendant states that the Prosecution has no competent evidence that would establish that any person named in the evidence is a drug dealer. Instead, the Prosecution can rely only on hearsay and surmise, and if it were to describe people as drug dealers there would be a danger that the jury would make a prejudicial association between them and the Defendant.
